

The question was asked by Ronald Brown

T. Van der Linden

Tim Van der Linden (tim.vanderlinden@uclouvain.be)
Université catholique de Louvain

Abstract. This talk is dedicated to Ronnie Brown—who passed away last year—and highlights some of his many original ideas. I will sketch the influence of his work and legacy, both on my own research and on categorical algebra more broadly. In particular, I will elaborate on two questions he first posed: What is a double crossed module? and What is a double central extension?